

Columbia Regional Airport (COU) - Quick Facts

- ✓ COU is a convenient travel option for Mid-Missouri residents and visitors with amenities including car rental, restaurant/concessions, free Wi-Fi access (courtesy of iZones), and free convenient parking close to the terminal.
- ✓ COU offers commercial service through Delta Airlines, d/b/a Delta Connection, to provide essential air service to Mid-Missouri. This service includes 3 flights/day (2 on Saturdays), which arrive in Memphis (MEM) in time to catch 3 major “banks” of flights to numerous domestic and international destinations. One ticket connects you to the world!
- ✓ The airplane is a 34-seat Saab 340. Travelers enjoy the luxury of a single security checkpoint at COU since MEM has a connector that keeps travelers in the secured area while making their connections.
- ✓ MEM is an international airport so international travelers can directly enter/exit the country through Memphis.
- ✓ Fares are competitive on many flights from COU when compared to the time and expense of driving to and parking at MCI or STL. Our online trip calculator at www.FlyMidMo.com will help you compare the difference of flying from Columbia verses driving to St. Louis or Kansas City to catch a flight.
- ✓ Northwest Airlines recently merged with Delta, which will offer expanded options for travelers via COU. The airline name has changed to Delta at COU, but the service is expected to remain the same.
- ✓ Check for more information and features related to flying from COU at www.FlyMidMo.com. Visitors will be kept up to date on upcoming news, events and fare specials. FlightView allows visitors to check real time arrivals and departures and visually check flights to and from COU. Go online to sign up for email updates on airport news.
