GALLERIES

Missouri Nostalgia: Works on Paper from the Scruggs-Vandervoort Collection –

May 21 – October 27 at the MU Museum of Art & Archaeology. The Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Collection comprises almost one hundred paintings and drawings capturing rural and urban life in Missouri in 1946 and 1947. Also called the Heart of the Nation Collection, these works survive as notable records of landscapes, cityscapes, ways of life, and folk traditions from across the state. This exhibition will present a selection of watercolors and drawings, light-sensitive works that cannot be exhibited regularly, in order to enhance the Museum's ongoing displays of Missouri Regionalism.

Faces Found: Boone County Portraits 1886 - 1940 – March 20 – November 10 at the Boone

County History & Culture Center. Two years ago, volunteers in the Henry J. "Hank" Waters III Digital Imaging Lab began the work of digitizing our 500,000 piece vintage photography collection. This exhibit, running through early November, 2019, features more than 50 newly-digitized glass plate negatives that are the work of four early Columbia photographers. Some of the 50 enlarged prints are 5 feet in height. The exhibit also includes historic photography equipment and vintage textiles from our collections.

Impeccable Tate: Seventeenth-Century Ornamental Design in Print – June 11 –

December 21 at the MU Museum of Art & Archaeology. Designs for the ornamentation of fabrics, furniture, jewelry, armor, and a variety of other materials are of fundamental importance to the history of Western printmaking. Indeed, the techniques of woodcut, engraving, and etching all originated in methods for creating decoration on media other than paper. The seventeenth century saw a remarkable flourishing of printed designs, which disseminated elite tastes and sophisticated craftsmanship to wider audiences than ever before. This exhibition will feature an array of printed designs for lavishly embellished architectural elements, woodworking and carpentry, jewelry, and other personal luxury objects.
