

ART ADVENTURES

UNPARALLELED ARTISTIC EXPERIENCES

COLUMBIA'S NORTH VILLAGE ARTS DISTRICT OFFERS
SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE.

Start Your Tour

Stop first at ARTlandish Gallery in The District. The gallery is full of unique gifts, fine art and crafts, pottery, glass, jewelry and wearables all handmade by local artists. You must check out the Catacombs Galleries before you leave!

Across the Way

Just across the street you'll find the Columbia Art League (CAL). CAL showcases work by local and national accomplished and rising artists. Most of the displayed works available for sale, including jewelry, ceramics, paintings and more.

Time to Refuel

Rest your eyes and fill your stomach at Room 38. Their private dining room can accommodate your party with reservations. The menu features a variety of tastes that are deliciously complementary to one another. Don't forget dessert!

New Perspectives

Sager Braudis is a short walk away in the North Village Arts District. The gallery specializes in American and Cuban contemporary as well as mid-century works with an emphasis on overlooked figures of art history. New perspectives and insights await you.

Local Art

Across the street from Sager Braudis, you'll find one of the several pieces featured in the Office of Cultural Affairs Public Art Tour. Download the app, Otocast, to experience an outdoor tour of Columbia's public art and learn more about them.

Wine & Dine

A few more steps and you've arrived at your dinner destination! 11Eleven, located inside The Broadway Hotel, features a menu that will satisfy your cravings. World-class flavors are brought to every dish, and you can enjoy yourself after your art-filled excursion.

@VisitColumbiaMO

@VisitColumbiaMO

@VisitColumbiaMO