

FOR THE FOODIES

DIVERSE DINING OPTIONS GALORE

Whatever you are craving, Columbia is ready to serve you.

For Starters

Begin your day at Ernie's Cafe. In business since 1934, this diner-style setting is sure to bring nostalgia for simpler times while you enjoy breakfast protein favorites like Boone County ham, eggs, pork chops and even filet mignon. Don't get too full though!

Sweet Escape

Next, satisfy your sweet tooth with a trip to The Candy Factory. It has been a Columbia treasure for over 30 years. While open seasonally, touring the candy kitchen and trying the chocolate-covered strawberries are a must when their doors are open.

For the Chef

Just a short distance from the Candy Factory in The District is Tallulahs, a cook's paradise. Offering everything from easy to use gadgets to stunning serving pieces, you will find everything you never knew you needed to complete your kitchen.

EAT, DRINK & BE MERRY

Lunchtime

Spend your afternoon eating your way through delicious food and drinks on a Columbia Culinary Tour! Groups of eight or more can be guided through The District's downtown restaurants and learn all about Columbia. This is a must for all who love food!

Cheers!

After eating some of the amazing food Columbia has to offer, wind down with a drink at one of our several watering holes. Enjoy a bleu Rosemary Lemonade at Pressed while taking in the downtown views from this stunning rooftop bar.

Brews & Views

Looking for even more panoramic views? Visit The Roof, home to handcrafted cocktails and live local music, conveniently located on top of The Broadway Hotel in downtown Columbia. Have a drink, listen to the music and enjoy the outdoor fire puts.
