

NATURE'S BEAUTY

Take the road less traveled by.

Columbia's parks and trails boast unbeatable views.

300 S Providence, Columbia, MO 65201 | VisitColumbiaMO.com

Start Your Day

Before you head out on the trails, stop at Broadway Diner, a local favorite. Go on to the MKT Nature and Fitness Trail. This 8.9-mile trail goes through downtown Columbia and on to the Katy Trail.

Devil's Icebox

Hike through Rock Bridge Memorial State Park and go all the way down to the Devil's Icebox, a place where you can feel the temperature drop as you walk down the stairs. See springs, caves and even more.

Picturesque

With over five miles of nature trails, the Grindstone Nature Area offers a leash-free area for your canine trail buddy and prairie areas filled with wildflowers. It's a photo-worthy place to hike through.

Stop & Stare

For a more scenic walk, visit Shelter Gardens. This five-acre garden features a 19th century replica one-room schoolhouse, a garden for the visually impaired and a waterfall and stream.

Refuel

Shakespeare's Pizza is the perfect stop for a break from the trails. With three locations in Columbia, you can make it there from wherever your journey ends. Try The Masterpiece because it truly is a work of art!

Sunset Views

Take in the views and atmosphere of Cooper's Landing. This full-service marina offers campgrounds and live music. Enjoy a drink as you end your day watching the sunset.
