ENJOY EVERY MOMENT IN COLUMBIA, MO

Why choose between a small town and a big city when you can have both? Make the most of your time in a city that has it all: Columbia offers visitors an array of museums, art galleries, architecture, shopping, trails, parks and locally sourced cuisine that captures the diversity of a city while maintaining small-town charm. From the cultural melting pot of our downtown District to reinvigorating and easily accessible trails and parks, our engaged community takes pride in everything our city has to offer and goes out of its way to make all feel welcome. And because people here know the value of investing in every facet of our community, when you're in Columbia, your guests are bound to experience something happily unexpected.

GETTING STARTED

We're here to make your job easier and save you time. We act as your go-between, working to accommodate your needs and budget and directing you to the appropriate contacts at hotels, meeting facilities, attractions, restaurants and service providers that can help you achieve your meeting goals.

ONCE YOU'VE BOOKED

The Columbia CVB strives to provide a full range of complimentary, customized services and materials for meetings, conferences and events which are based on group size, hotel room nights and other special considerations. These include:

CUSTOMIZED SERVICE PACKAGE

Our team can provide a service package just for your group with tangible and intangible products.

PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS

The CVB team will provide an information booth at your event that includes visitor guides, maps and other visitor information your guests could be interested in.

WELCOME LETTERS & SPEECHES

We are happy to have you in Columbia, and it is our pleasure to arrange custom welcome letters and speeches from local dignitaries.

VALUE

Columbia's meeting and lodging facilities are very reasonably priced. Our experienced and connected sales team is happy to assist you in securing proposals and setting up site visits, saving you valuable time. Our commitment is to ensure that all meetings, big or small, receive excellent service and our undivided attention.

CHOICE

Columbia has more than 30 hotels, which means a possible 3,500+ rooms, and our lodging options can accommodate any budget. In addition to an array of hotels, Columbia has more than 200 restaurants and a variety of shops and boutiques — many of them uniquely local. Our dynamic dining community and fantastic shopping opportunities are just part of what makes Columbia "what you unexpect!"

WHILE YOU'RE HERE

We are always excited and ready to show visitors everything Columbia has to offer. With an energetic community and an endless supply of dining, shopping, outdoor and team building activities to choose from, Columbia will be exactly what your group — and their guests! — “unexpected.” Whatever you’re looking for, let our team help you create just the right mix of planned group activities, as well as spouse and family outings.

CONVENIENCE

Columbia’s central location — right in the heart of mid-Missouri — and easy access from St. Louis and Kansas City via I-70 makes it an ideal Midwestern destination. The Columbia Regional Airport is served by American Airlines, offering daily flights connecting from Dallas and Chicago.
